AquaBus and AquaLink

Operating daily in summer, the AquaBus and AquaLink provide a fun way to get around in sunny Long Beach. The AquaBus has five “ports of call”: Aquarium of the Pacific at Dock 4, The Queen Mary, Shoreline Village at Parker’s Lighthouse, Pine Avenue Circle at Dock 7 and the Hotel Maya, a Doubletree by Hilton. The brightly colored yellow and purple AquaLink catamaran comfortably ferries up to 75 passengers to the most popular attractions in Long Beach Harbor, Belmont Shore and on down to Alamitos Bay Landing.

Passport

A network of free downtown buses, red Passport shuttles provide an easy and environmentally friendly way to see the city. For just $1.25, you can take the Passport to Belmont Shore, Alamitos Bay and the California State University, Long Beach campus.

Happy to be of service.

The professional staff of the Long Beach Convention & Visitors Bureau's Convention Services Department are pleased to offer a variety of services to ensure the success of your meeting from start to finish.

Our Convention Services Department works closely with you, reducing the amount of time you would normally spend on meeting preparation. Convention Services is your resource for meeting pre-planning and on-site assistance. They coordinate registration personnel, assist in special event venue selection and offer a data bank of services and organizations whose specialty is providing the essential for a successful conference.

We're here to help you make your special event extra special. We offer a wealth of resources to assist you with everything – from tours, spouse functions, speakers and music as well as our professional registration staff to conduct computer data input, cashing and room monitoring. We can also introduce you to our community partners who know how to make any event an outstanding success.

When you arrive, you can count on our Concierge & Information Booth to offer assistance with all your dinner reservations. We'll also provide you with an assortment of collateral materials, including official Long Beach guides, individual attraction and restaurant brochures and more.

Award-winning Service.

Not only does Long Beach offer exceptional facilities in beautiful surroundings, our convention services are truly outstanding. In fact, Long Beach has been recognized by planners throughout the industry with seven major awards in the past 12 months. And to make sure we consistently offer this award-winning service year after year, we follow up all of our events with a survey asking how we can further improve. So come to Long Beach for your next event and see what all the accolades are about.
